Article 14: The common foreign, security and defence policy

14.1 Member States shall support the Union's common foreign and security policy in a spirit of loyalty and mutual solidarity. They shall refrain from action contrary to the Union's interests or likely to undermine its effectiveness.

14.2 Without prejudice to the North Atlantic Treaty or to the specific character of the defence policy of certain Member States, the Union is committed to its collective security and, accordingly, shall frame progressively a common defence policy.

Explanation:

14.1 The Praesidium's commitment to 'active and unreserved' support of common foreign and security policy is no doubt well-intentioned but is hardly attuned to reality. There must be scope in Part Two for constructive abstention from joint actions and for the formation of core groups of Member States both capable and willing to act in the vanguard.

Likewise, there must be scope for certain governments to harbour reservations for national political or historic reasons about a position struck by a majority in the Council. The development of CFSP has to be consensual, respecting minority views. The constitution should not impair its development by seeking to impose a uniformity at variance with the reality.

14.2 To be consistent with the present Treaty on European Union, specific mention must be made here of defence policy. The EU Rapid Reaction Force and any future EU military combinations must have a legal basis in the Constitution.

Within the context of a commitment to the collective security of the Union as a whole, obligations to NATO by some Member States and to neutrality by others should be referred to explicitly.

Avant la première phrase, insérer les alinéas suivants :

« Les objectifs de la politique étrangère et de sécurité commune sont :

- la promotion des valeurs et des objectifs communs définis aux articles 2 et 3 ;
- la sauvegarde des intérêts fondamentaux, de l'indépendance et de l'intégrité de l'Union, conformément aux principes de la charte des Nations Unies ;
- le renforcement de la sécurité de l'Union sous toutes ses formes ;
- le maintien de la paix et le renforcement de la sécurité internationale, conformément aux principes de la charte des Nations Unies , ainsi qu'aux principes de l' acte final de Helsinki et aux objectifs de la charte de Paris, y compris ceux relatifs aux frontières extérieures ;
- la promotion de la paix internationale ;
- le renforcement de la démocratie et de l'État de droit, ainsi que le respect des droits de l'homme et des libertés fondamentales.

Explication éventuelle :

Cet amendement introduit dans le traité les objectifs de la politique étrangère et de sécurité commune tels que le prévoit l'article 11 du TUE. Il serait peu compréhensible pour le lecteur de ne mentionner dans cet article 14 relatif à la PESC que la clause selon laquelle les États membres sont solidaires de cette politique, sans en avoir auparavant exposé le contenu.

Die Union verfügt über die Zuständigkeit zur Erarbeitung und Verwirklichung einer Gemeinsamen Außen- und Sicherheitspolitik.

Explanation (if any) :

Titel III der Verfassung ist den Zuständigkeiten der Union gewidmet. Diese Bestimmung beschreibt jedoch keine Zuständigkeit der Union sondern Pflichten der Mitgliedstaaten. Artikel 14 ist deshalb als Zuständigkeit der Union zu formulieren.

Die Unionszuständigkeit im Bereich der GASP trägt besonderen Charakter. Sie beinhaltet Zuständigkeiten verschiedener Zuständigkeitsarten. Sie kann deshalb nicht einheitlich einer Zuständigkeitsart zugeordnet werden. Die Zuordnung der einzelnen Unionszuständigkeiten im Rahmen der GASP zu den jeweiligen Zuständigkeitsarten kann erst im Teil II der Verfassung erfolgen.

Im übrigen wird hier die Formulierung des Präsidiums aus Art. 10 Absatz 4 wieder aufgegriffen, der sich seinerseits an Art. 11 Absatz 1 EUV anlehnt.

Article 14: The common foreign and security policy

Amend to read :

- ~~1. Member States shall actively and unreservedly support the Union's common foreign and security policy in a spirit of loyalty and mutual solidarity. They shall refrain from action contrary to the Union's interests or likely to undermine its effectiveness.~~
  1. The objectives and principles of the common foreign and security policy shall be [to be inserted]
  2. The Union shall define and implement a common foreign and security policy, including the progressive framing of the common defence policy, which might lead to a common defence, should the European Council so decide. In that case, the European Council shall recommend to the Member States the adoption of such a decision in accordance with their respective constitutional requirements.
  3. The exercise of competence in this area by the Union shall not result in Member States being prevented from exercising their competence.

Explanation (if any) :

As in Article 13, it is necessary to restate the principles of Article 10. If it is intended to include a substantive reference to CFSP in Article 14, it is appropriate that it should list its objectives and principles or include a reference to their location elsewhere in the Treaty. The remainder of this Article cannot properly be considered until the full text dealing with this area is available.

Respect for the respective constitutional requirements of Member States in this area is an important principle (currently in Article 17.1 TEU) and merits inclusion in Part One of the Treaty. The provisions of Article 17 TEU in particular, and the other provisions of Title V TEU, will need to be considered when drafting Part Two of the Treaty, as will the issues raised in the report of the Working Group on Defence .

It is also necessary to clarify that Member States retain competence in this area .

Article 14.1 as it currently stands does not add to the principle of loyal cooperation as expressed in Article 8.5 (as expanded by proposed amendment) and should be deleted.

Article 15: Areas for supporting action

2. The areas for supporting action are:
- employment
  - industry
  - education, vocational training and youth
  - culture
  - ~~sport~~
  - protection against disasters, and public health

Explanation:

Sport should not be added to the list of areas where the Union can adopt supporting actions. Union action in this field is sufficiently covered by other legal bases in the Treaty, for instance internal market competence. Moreover, this issue was discussed in WG V on complementary competence and was not broadly supported.

With regard to public health see explanation under Article 12.
