~~7. The national parliaments of the Member States may also, during the period between the convening of the Conciliation Committee meeting and the holding of that meeting, issue a reasoned opinion stating why they consider either that the Council's common position does not comply with the principle of subsidiarity or that the European Parliament's amendments do not so comply. At the Conciliation Committee meeting, the European Parliament and the Council shall take the fullest account of the opinions expressed by the national parliaments of the Member States.~~

Explanation (if any) :

The formal possibility to interrupt the Union's legislative procedure once it is underway should not be possible. National parliaments should stick to their primary role which is to influence and hold account the performance of their ministers in Council.
