Article 25: Legislative acts

1. Union European laws and ~~European~~-framework laws shall be adopted, on the basis of proposals from the Commission, jointly by the European Parliament and the Council in accordance with the rules of the legislative procedure referred to in Article X (Part Two of the Constitution). If the two institutions cannot reach agreement on an act, it shall not be adopted.

Specific provisions shall apply in the cases referred to in Article Z (ex-third pillar).

2. In the specific cases provided for by the Constitution, Union European-laws and ~~European~~ framework laws shall be adopted by the Council.
3. When acting under any procedure for the adoption of a Union European law or a ~~European~~ framework law, the European Parliament and the Council shall meet in public.

Explanation: Using the full names of Union acts throughout the Constitution involves too much repetition. See further in our amendment to Article 24.
