Suggestion for amendment of Article : 26

By Mr Andrew Duff, Paul Helminger, Dimitrij Rupel, Peeter Kreitzberg, Algirdas Gričius, Puiu Hasotti, Jelko Kacin, Zekeriya Akçam, Members of the Convention

Article 26: Executive acts<sup>1</sup>

The Council or the Commission, as well the European Central Bank, shall adopt regulations or decisions in the cases referred to in Article 28 and in cases specifically laid down in the Constitution.

---

Explanation:

The article should be renamed. As the accompanying explanation recognises, "non-legislative acts are adopted by the two institutions exercising executive powers ...". For the sake of clarity all reference to 'non-legislative' should be replaced by 'executive'.

This article should follow the subsequent one not precede it. It concerns non-legislative acts which are the subject of Article 28, not 27 (see footnote).

It should be the Council or the Commission. 'And' implies a joint action, which is not presumably intended.

The Praesidium seems confused. We are not talking here of secondary legislation but of implementing acts.
