Suggestion for Part I

By Ms / Mr : G.M. de Vries
 T.J.A.M. de Bruijn

Status : Members Alternate

1. European laws and European framework laws may delegate to the Commission the power to enact delegated regulations to supplement or amend certain non-essential elements of the law or framework law.

The objectives, content, scope and duration of the delegation shall be explicitly defined in the laws and framework laws. A delegation may not cover the essential elements of an area. These shall be reserved for the law or framework law.

The law or framework law shall lay down in advance rules and general principles for the mechanisms for control or assistance by Member States over these delegated regulations of the Union.

2. The conditions of application to which the delegation is subject shall be explicitly determined in the laws and framework laws; they may consist of the following possibilities:
 - the European Parliament or the Council may decide to revoke the delegation;
 - the delegated regulation may enter into force only if no objection has been expressed by the European Parliament or the Council within a period set by the law or framework law.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the European Parliament shall act by a majority of its members, and the Council by a qualified majority.

Explanation (if any): The Dutch government wishes to see an incorporation of the provisions of the ‘method Lamfalussy’ in this article, in which national experts may assist the Commission and Council.
