Article 27

Delete the following parts of the Article:

1. European laws and European framework laws may delegate to the Commission the power to enact delegated regulations.

The objectives, content, scope and duration of the delegation shall be explicitly defined in the laws and framework laws.
2. The conditions of application to which the delegation is subject shall be explicitly determined in the law or framework law; they shall consist of the following possibility:
 - the delegated regulation may enter into force only if no objection has been expressed by the European Parliament or the Council within a period set by the law or framework law;

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the European Parliament shall act by a majority of its members, and the Council by a qualified majority.
