Proposed Amendments

Article 27: Delegated regulations

1. European laws and European framework laws may delegate to the Commission the power to enact delegated regulations.

The objectives, content, scope and duration of the delegation shall be explicitly defined in the laws and framework laws. A delegation can be extended upon a proposal of the Commission.

2. The conditions of application to which the delegation is subject shall be explicitly determined in the law or framework law; they shall consist of one or more of the following possibilities:
  - the European Parliament and the Council may decide to revoke the delegation;
  - the delegated regulation may enter into force only if no objection has been expressed by the European Parliament or the Council within a period set by the law or framework law;
  - the provisions of the delegated regulation are to lapse after a period set by the law or framework law. They may be extended, on a proposal from the Commission, by decision of the European Parliament and of the Council.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the European Parliament shall act by a majority of its members, and the Council by a qualified majority.
