Article I-44: The principle of democratic equality

The Union's operation shall be founded on the DUAL principle of the equality of ITS citizens and ITS MEMBER STATES. (who shall receive equal attention from the Union's institutions= SHALL BE DELETED).

Explanation:

The scope and purpose of this article is unclear. As a starting point for title VI it should, however, cover also the other leading principle in this respect namely that of equality between Member States. In this way, a necessary recognition is given to the dual nature of the Union as the Union of citizens and Member States.
