Article 33: The principle of democratic equality

The Union's operation shall be founded on the dual principle of the equality of its citizens, ~~who~~ ~~shall receive equal attention from the Union's institutions~~ and its Member States.

Explanation (if any) :

The scope and purpose of this article is unclear. As a starting point for title VI it should, however, cover also the other leading principle in this respect namely that of equality between Member States. In this way, a necessary recognition is given to the dual nature of the Union as the Union of citizens and Member States.
