Article 33: The principle of democratic equality

All citizens shall be treated equally in their dealings with the Union's institutions.

~~The Union's operation shall be founded on the principle of the equality of citizens, who shall receive equal attention from the Union's institutions.~~

Explanation (if any) :

It should be clear that this Article is about how the Union's institutions relate to citizens, not about the fundamental nature of the Union as a union of peoples and States.
