Article 35a: Political parties at European level

Political Parties at European level are important as a factor for integration within the Union. They contribute to forming a European awareness and to expressing the political will of the citizens of the Union.

The Parliament and the Council, in accordance with the legislative procedure, shall adopt the regulations governing political parties at European level and in particular the rules regarding their funding.

Political parties shall constitute their internal organisation on a democratic basis. They shall nominate their candidates for the European Parliament according to democratic procedures.
