By Mr Ivan Korčok, Ján Figel' and Juraj Migaš (Slovakia)

Status: I. Korčok and J. Figel' are members, J. Migaš is an alternate.

Article 18a: The President of the European Commission

1. Taking into account the elections to the European Parliament, the European Council, ~~deciding by qualified majority,~~ shall put forward to the European Parliament its proposed candidate for the Presidency of the Commission. ~~This~~ The President of the Commission ~~candidate~~ shall be elected by the European Parliament by a three fifth majority of its members. If this candidate does not receive the required majority support, the European Council shall within one month put forward a new candidate, following the same procedure as before.
 2. Each Member State shall submit a list of three persons whom it considers qualified to be a European Commissioner. The President-elect, ~~taking account of European political and geographical balance,~~ shall, from among the names submitted, select as members of the Commission one person from each Member State up to thirteen persons chosen for their competence, European commitment, and guaranteed independence. The President and the persons so nominated for membership of the Commission shall be submitted as a body to a vote of approval by the European Parliament.
 3. The Commission, as a body shall be responsible to the European Parliament. Under the procedures set out at Art. X of the ~~Constitution~~ Constitutional Treaty, it may pass a censure motion on the Commission. If such a motion is passed, the members of the Commission must all resign. They shall continue to handle everyday business until their successors are nominated.
 4. The Commission shall work to guidelines laid down by its President. He shall decide its internal organization, ensuring that it acts consistently, efficiently and on a collegiate basis. He shall appoint vice-presidents from among the members of the Commission.
 5. ~~The President may appoint Associate Commissioners, chosen according to the same criteria as apply for members of the Commission. Their number must not exceed the number of~~ members of the Commission.
