~~Provisions on arrangements for meetings between ministers of those Members States which are members of the Eurozone are set out in a protocol attached to the Constitution.~~

Explanation (if any):

The Ministers of the Eurogroup underlined that the Eurogroup must continue to exist as an informal body. In order to strengthen the Eurogroup's legitimacy and visibility, they agreed to recognize it in a Protocol annexed to the Constitution. To underline the informal and confidential role of the Eurogroup there should not be an explicit reference in the Constitution itself.
