1. Europol's mission is to support and strengthen action by the Member States' police authorities and other law enforcement services and their mutual cooperation in preventing and combating the serious, and in particular organised, crime affecting two or more Member States, terrorism and forms of crime which affect a common interest covered by a Union policy.

After

A European law shall also lay down the procedures for scrutiny of Europol's activities by the European Parliament, together with Member States' national parliaments.

Add:

With regard to decisions referred to in this paragraph [2], the Council shall act unanimously, after consulting the European Parliament.
