European Council decisions on the strategic interests and objectives of the Union may relate to foreign policy and to other areas of the external action of the Union. Such decisions may concern the relations of the Union with a specific country or region or may be thematic in approach. They shall define their duration, and the means to be made available by the Union and the Member States.

The European Council shall act unanimously on a proposal from the Council. The Council proposal shall be adopted by the Council by a qualified majority on the basis of recommendations by the Union Minister for Foreign Affairs or a Member State (for matters relating to the common foreign and security policy), by the Commission (for other areas of external action), or by ~~both~~ the Union Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Commission together. The decisions of the European Council shall be implemented by the Council in accordance with the procedures provided for in the Constitution.

2. The Union Minister for Foreign Affairs, for the field of common foreign and security policy, and the Commission, for other fields of external action, may submit joint proposals to the Council. The Council shall adopt decisions on such joint proposals by qualified majority.
This shall not apply to matters having military or defence implications.

Explanation (if any) : A Member State should also be able to bring forward proposals to the Council for a decision on the strategic interests and objectives of the Union. The procedure outlined at subsection 2 shall not apply to matters having military or defence implications, where unanimity shall remain the rule (see also comment at article 9).
