Article 4

The European Council shall define the principles of and general guidelines for the common foreign and security policy, including for matters with defence implications.

If international developments so require, the ~~President~~ Chair¹ of the European Council shall convene an extraordinary meeting of the European Council in order to define the strategic lines of the Union's policy in the face of such developments.

The Council shall take the decisions necessary for defining and implementing the common foreign and security policy on the basis of the strategic lines defined by the European Council.

¹ Corresponds with the heading of Article 16 a, Part I, Title IV on Institutions
