CHAPTER 1: COMMON FOREIGN AND SECURITY POLICY

A. Common foreign policy

Article 9

~~1. Decisions under this Chapter shall be taken by the Council acting unanimously. Abstentions by members present in person or represented shall not prevent the adoption of such decisions. When abstaining in a vote, any member of the Council may qualify its abstention by making a formal declaration under the present subparagraph. In that case, it shall not be obliged to apply the decision, but shall accept that the decision commits the Union. In a spirit of mutual solidarity, the Member State concerned shall refrain from any action likely to conflict with or impede Union action based on that decision and the other Member States shall respect its position. If the members of the Council qualifying their abstention in this way represent more than one third of the votes weighted in accordance with Article X of the Constitution, the decision shall not be adopted.~~

~~2. By derogation from paragraph 1, the Council shall act by qualified majority:~~

~~— when adopting decisions on Union actions and positions on the basis of a European Council decision relating to the Union's strategic interests and objectives, as~~

~~defined in Article 2(1) of this Title;~~

~~— when acting on the basis of a joint proposal by the Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Commission, as defined in Article 2(2);~~

~~— when adopting any decision implementing a decision on Union action or position;~~

~~— when appointing a special representative in accordance with Article 11 of this Chapter.~~

~~If a member of the Council declares that, for important and stated reasons of national policy, it intends to oppose the adoption of a decision to be taken by qualified majority, a vote shall not be taken. The Council may, acting by a qualified majority, request that the matter be referred to the European Council for decision by unanimity.~~

~~— This paragraph shall not apply to decisions having military or defence implications.~~

~~3. The European Council may decide unanimously that the Council shall act by a qualified majority in cases other than those referred to in paragraph 2 above.~~

1. Decisions under this chapter shall be taken by the Council by qualified majority:

If a member of the Council declares that, for important and stated reasons of national policy, it intends to oppose the adoption of a decision to be taken by qualified majority, a vote shall not be taken. The Foreign Minister and the Chairman of the European Council shall act as mediators in such a situation. Should the mediation not lead to a result acceptable for the member state in question and the other member states the matter will be referred to the European Council for decision by qualified majority.

2. By derogation from paragraph 1, the Council shall act in any case by qualified majority:

- when adopting decisions on Union actions and positions on the basis of a European Council decision relating to the Union's strategic interests and objectives, as defined in Article 2(1) of this Title;*
- when acting on the basis of a joint proposal by the Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Commission, as defined in Article 2(2);*

- when adopting any decision implementing a decision on Union action or position;
- when appointing a special representative in accordance with Article 11 of this Chapter.

3. Decisions with defence implications shall be taken by the Council acting unanimously, whereby abstentions by members present in person or represented shall not prevent the adoption of such decisions. When abstaining in a vote, any member of the Council may qualify its abstention by making a formal declaration under the present subparagraph. In that case, it shall not be obliged to apply the decision, but shall accept that the decision commits the Union. In a spirit of mutual solidarity, the Member State concerned shall refrain from any action likely to conflict with or impede Union action based on that decision and the other Member States shall respect its position. If the members of the Council qualifying their abstention in this way represent more than one third of member states representing one third of the EU-population, the decision shall not be adopted.

Explanation (if any) :

It is crucial that the principle of qualified majority voting is laid down as a general rule in Foreign and Security Policy. Exceptions should be allowed in case of important and stated reasons of national policy. Paragraph 2 clarifies, in which area this kind of exceptions shall not be permitted.
