Article 32 1. The Union may commit itself through agreements concluded with one or more third countries or international organisations in cases where the provisions of the Constitution provide for the conclusion of such agreements. 2. The Union may conclude association agreements with one or more third countries or international organisations. Such agreements shall establish an association with one or more third countries or international organisations involving reciprocal rights and obligations, common action and special procedure. 3. The Union may conclude international agreements where conclusion is necessary to achieve a Union objective, where there is provision for it in a Union legislative act, or where the agreements affect one of the Union's internal acts. 4. Agreements concluded by the Union are binding upon the institutions of the Union and on its	Article 32 1. In matters relating to humanitarian aid and trade with developing countries , the Community may commit itself through agreements concluded with one or more third countries or international organisations in cases where the provisions of the simplifying Treaty provide for the conclusion of such agreements. 2. In matters relating to humanitarian aid and trade with developing countries , the Community may conclude association agreements with one or more third countries or international organisations.
