

AMENDMENT FORM

Suggestion for amendment of Article : 33 of Part II, Title B

Suggestion for protocol :

By Mr : Dick Roche

Status : - Member

1. Without prejudice to the specific provisions laid down in Articles 24 of this Title, agreements between the Union and third states or international organisations shall be negotiated and concluded by the following procedure.
2. The Council shall authorise negotiations to be opened, adopt negotiating directives and conclude agreements.
3. The Commission, or the Union's Minister for Foreign Affairs where the proposed negotiations agreement exclusively or principally relates to the common foreign and security policy, shall submit recommendations to the Council, authorising ~~him to open the~~ opening of negotiations on behalf of the Union. The Commission and the Union's Minister for Foreign Affairs shall, where appropriate, present recommendations jointly.
4. In connection with the decision authorising negotiations, depending on the subject of the future agreement, the Council shall nominate the negotiator or leader of the Union's negotiating team.
5. The Council may address the negotiating directives to the negotiator of the agreement and may designate a special committee in consultation with which the negotiations must be held.
6. On a proposal from the agreement negotiator, the Council shall decide on the signing and, if necessary, provisional application of agreements before entry into force.
7. The Council shall conclude agreements on the proposal of the agreement negotiator. Except where agreements relate exclusively to the common foreign and security policy, the Council shall not conclude any agreement until the European Parliament has been consulted. The Parliament shall deliver its opinion within a time-limit which the Council may lay down according to the urgency of the matter. In the absence of an opinion within that time-limit, the Council may act. However, the European Parliament's assent shall be required for association agreements, accession to the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms and for agreements establishing a specific institutional framework by organising cooperation procedures, agreements with important budgetary implications for the Union and agreements covering fields to which the legislative procedure applies. The Council and the European Parliament may, in an urgent situation, agree upon a time-limit for the assent.

8. When concluding an agreement, the Council may, by way of derogation from the foregoing, authorise the negotiator of the agreement to approve modifications on the Union's behalf where the agreement provides for them to be adopted by a simplified procedure or by a body set up by the agreement; it may attach specific conditions to such authorisation.
9. The Council shall act by a qualified majority throughout the procedure. However, it shall act unanimously when the agreement covers a field for which unanimity is required for the adoption of internal rules and for association agreements and accession to the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedom
10. The Council, on a proposal from the Union's Minister for Foreign Affairs or the Commission, shall decide to suspend the application of an agreement, and establish the positions to be adopted on the Union's behalf in a body set up by an agreement, when that body is called upon to adopt decisions having legal effects, with the exception of decisions supplementing or amending the institutional framework of the agreement.
11. The European Parliament shall be immediately and fully informed of all the stages of the procedure described in this Article.
12. The European Parliament, the Council, the Commission, the European Central Bank or a Member State may obtain the opinion of the Court of Justice as to whether an agreement envisaged is compatible with the provisions of the Constitution over which the Court of Justice has jurisdiction. [Where the opinion of the Court of Justice is adverse, the agreement envisaged may not enter into force unless the Constitution is revised in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article [N]].

Explanation (if any) : I have indicated my strong views on the areas where unanimity should continue to apply. If there is a further extension of QMV, the external read-across will have to be examined carefully, in particular those set out at 33.9.

The amendments proposed at subsection 3 reflect circumstances in which it is not appropriate for the Union Minister for Foreign Affairs to open negotiations on behalf of the Union (the current text would appear to preclude the Commission from acting in this respect).

While it is appreciated that the final sentence of 33.12 is based on existing Treaty text, in the context of a simplifying Treaty consideration should be given to whether it is necessary.
