Article III-230 (ex Article 193)

In the course of its duties, the European Parliament may, [DELETE: at the request of a quarter of its component Members,] set up a temporary Committee of Inquiry to investigate, without prejudice to the powers conferred by the Constitution on other institutions or bodies, alleged contraventions or maladministration in the implementation of Union law, except where the alleged facts are being examined before a court and while the case is still subject to legal proceedings.

The temporary Committee of Inquiry shall cease to exist on the submission of its report.

A European law adopted by the European Parliament on its own initiative shall lay down the detailed provisions governing the exercise of the right of inquiry. The European Parliament shall act after seeking an opinion from the Commission and with the approval of the Council.
