NOTA DI TRASMISSIONE

del: Segretariato
alla: Convenzione

Oggetto: Rispetto dei principi di libertà religiosa e di laicità dello Stato

Il Sig. Borrell, membro della Convenzione, e i Sigg. Carnero e López Garido, supplenti, hanno trasmesso al Segretariato la risoluzione riportata nell'allegato, firmata da 163 membri del Parlamento europeo, che i succitati tre membri della Convenzione sottoscrivono e sulla quale desiderano richiamare l'attenzione della Convenzione.

PROPOSAL OF RESOLUTION FOR THE RESPECT OF THE FREEDOM OF RELIGION PRINCIPLES AND LAICISM OF THE STATE IN THE FUTURE EUROPEAN CONSTITUTION

The signing members of the European Parliament,

Whereas:

- the right to freedom of religion, to change religion, to manifest religious beliefs in worship and to religious association are rights recognised by the international, European and national law on human rights and fundamental freedoms
- the principles of lay State, of separation and independence between the States and the Church, of equality and non discrimination between citizens, and consequently between the different religions and Churches, are the basis of democracy and the rule of law,
- the European Union comprises, notably in the perspective of enlargement to Eastern Europe and Turkey, citizens of different nationalities, provenance, language, race and religion or belief, in the common aim of assuring peace, progress and prosperity to everybody
- the Vatican and some Members of the Convention are running a campaign to insert in the text of the future European Constitution a reference to the Christian roots or heritage of Europe ask the Convention and its members, the Council, national governments and parliaments, to assure that no direct or indirect reference to any specific religion or belief is included in the future European Convention, and instead to promote the right to freedom of religion, to change religion, to manifest religious beliefs in worship and to religious association, together with the principles of lay State, of separation and independence between the State and the Church.
